ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED, a PARTNER in a PROVINCIAL PAPER, who can command from 100*l.* to 150*l.* where the profits are certain and no risk.
Address by letter, post-paid, C. B. at the Office of THE CRITIC.

BOOKSELLER'S ASSISTANT.—WANTED, by a Bookseller and Stationer at the West End, an ASSISTANT who has a thorough knowledge of modern books, and the best method of conducting a circulating library.
Apply by letter, stating previous employers, age, and the amount of salary expected, to Y. E., at Mr. Evans's, 64, Berwick-street, Oxford-street.

THE FINE ARTS.—A BUSINESS, connected with the Fine Arts, to be DISPOSED OF; it has been established ten years, and has connections all over the United Kingdom. To any person possessing a taste, and wanting a genteel employment, it will prove an eligible opportunity. The sum required will be about 1,500*l.* to 2,000*l.*
Address to X. Y. Z. 9, Broad-street, Bloomsbury.

STATIONERY.—To be DISPOSED OF, a BUSINESS in the above line, established nearly six years, in the best part of London. The only reason for the proprietor giving it up is, having a wholesale business, and cannot attend to both. Coming in, including stock and fixtures, 40*l.* from which no abatement can be made.
For particulars apply to Mr. Harrison, 46, Chipstone-street, Marylebone.

STATIONER'S, Bookseller's, and Library.—To be DISPOSED OF, a most excellent BUSINESS in the above line, in one of the most wealthy and improving neighbourhoods of London. The shop is commanding and handsomely fitted up, and the stock of a fashionable and saleable description. A long lease may be had at a very moderate rent, and there is no probability of competition. This is an established and bona fide concern, and none but parties of respectability need apply, and those only who can command from 800*l.* to 900*l.*
Address, prepaid, to A. B. at Messrs. Cook and Co.'s, 63, Princes-street, Leicester-square.

TO STATIONERS, &c.—TO be DISPOSED OF, a GENERAL and FANCY BUSINESS in the above line, in the principal street of a first-rate Market Town. The business is capable of great extension, and a Bookselling Business might be advantageously added. The shop is very attractive, and the premises good. Rent 45*l.* per annum, half of which is made by a lodger. Coming in for stock, fixtures, and good-will, about 500*l.*
Letters addressed S. S. No. 6, Robson-place, Kennington-road, London, will have immediate attention.

TO STATIONERS and Others.—To be LET, in one of the greatest thoroughfares in the city of London, BUSINESS PREMISES, established in the above line some years. To be parted with a bargain. The shop is nearly 40 feet long, and there is a convenient back entrance, and the premises are in excellent repair.
For particulars and cards to view apply to Mr. Hasleham, auctioneer and house agent, Jerusalem-passage, Clerkenwell.

TO BOOKSELLERS, STATIONERS, and MUSIC-SELLERS.—To be DISPOSED OF, in the neighbourhood of Islington, a BUSINESS in the above line, together with an excellent public library. Satisfactory reasons can be given why the present proprietor is relinquishing it.
For further particulars address to W. S. 6, Great Portland-street.

TO PRINTERS, BOOKSELLERS, and STATIONERS.—For SALE, in the best part of one of the most fashionable watering places in Kent, an Old Established BUSINESS in the above line. Rent nearly covered by Commission. Satisfactory reasons will be given for the present proprietor retiring. Coming in about 1,500*l.*
For particulars apply to Messrs. Brown and King, Upper Thames-street.

METROPOLITAN SEWAGE MANURE COMPANY.

(Registered Provisionally.)
Estimated Capital for the Metropolis, 1,500,000*l.*
Capital to be first raised, 300,000*l.* in 15,000 Shares of 20*l.* each.
Deposit 1*l.* per Share.
Only 10*l.* per share will be required for the Company's first operations after obtaining their Bill. The remainder of the capital will only be called for with the consent of two-thirds of the shareholders.

SOLICITORS.—Messrs. Bailey, Shaw, and Smith, 5, Berners-street.
SECRETARY.—John James Moore, esq. 3, Queen square, Bloomsbury.

The object of this Company is to supply (at a quarter of the cost of stable or farm-yard manure) the sewage water of the metropolis to the surrounding country as manure, by mechanical means, similar to those employed by the water companies.
A careful and moderate calculation has been made of the annual outlay and income, from which it can confidently be stated that the undertaking will realize a net profit of at least 15 per cent.
No allotment of shares will be made until after the 30th of November, when the plans will have been deposited and the notices of the application to Parliament will be given.
The Act of Incorporation will limit the responsibility of the shareholders to the amount of their shares.
Applications for shares to be made in the usual form, addressed to the Provisional Committee of the Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company, and also for prospectuses and pamphlets, containing full particulars, at Messrs. Bailey, Shaw, and Smith's, 5, Berners-street.

MARTIN'S (R. M.) BRITISH COLONIES, being a very complete Statistical, Historical, and Geographical Account of all the Colonies of the British Empire, compiled from the Official Records of the Colonial Office, with Plans, Charters of Justice and Government, &c. &c. by R. Montgomery Martin: with large map by Wyld, and beautiful engravings of all the Seals of the various Colonies, royal 8vo. extra cloth bds. only 15s.

A work of great merit and importance, alike indispensable to the Statesman, the Merchant, the Emigrant, and the Philanthropist.

MARTIN'S (R. M.) BRITISH COLONIAL LIBRARY, forming a popular and authentic Description of all the Colonies of the British Empire, founded on Official and Popular Documents, furnished by Government, the Hon. East India Company, &c. illustrated by original maps and plates, cloth, 10 vols. foolscap 8vo. only 11. 10s.

MASSON'S NARRATIVE of various Journeys in Balochistan, Afghanistan, and the Panjab, also a Narrative of a Journey to Kálat, during a residence in those countries, by Charles Masson, esq. in 4 vols. 8vo. with a large map and numerous plates, cloth, 18s. 6d.

"Mr. Masson had better opportunities than any other European of becoming acquainted with the real facts in the life and character of Dost Mohammed Khan, both of which have now become important to history."

—Athenæum.

MATHEWS (Late CHARLES, the Comedian) "the most amusing" MEMOIRS of, by Mrs. Mathews, portraits and plates, 4 thick vols. 8vo. cloth, 18s.

MAXWELL'S VICTORIES AND CONQUESTS OF THE BRITISH ARMIES, with Anecdotes illustrative of Modern Warfare, by W. H. Maxwell, author of the "Stories of Waterloo," &c. 2 vols. 8vo. with numerous engravings, bound in cloth gilt, 9s. 6d.

Among a vast mass of other important matter, this work gives clear and distinct accounts of the battle of East Alexandria—Cape of Good Hope—Maida—The Peninsular War—Campaign of Sir John Moore—Salamanca—Pyrenæes—Quatre Bras—Waterloo—together with details and anecdotes, illustrative of modern warfare.

MAXWELL'S FORTUNES OF HECTOR O'HALLORAN, and the Humours of his Man Mark Anthony O'Toole, by W. H. Maxwell, in one large volume, 8vo. embellished with 27 humorous plates by Leech, elegantly bound in cloth, and gilt, 7s. 6d.

"A better story than Hector O'Halloran has not appeared for years: none but a dashing soldier, who has led an adventurous career, and maintained throughout all vicissitudes his buoyant spirits, could possibly have written it. 'Hector O'Halloran,' is decidedly Mr. Maxwell's masterpiece, and cannot fail to become a general favourite."—Sun.
